

The diagram consists of 12 rows of dots. Each row contains 12 dots, arranged in a regular grid. The dots are connected by lines, forming a series of small triangles. The first row has a dot at the top left, and the last row has a dot at the bottom right. The dots are connected by lines, forming a series of small triangles.